

For the prevention and cure of BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS
is recommended
Hahn's Anti-Bilious Pills
THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly gratifying to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives, when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than commons of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.
They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance; they are celebrated for removing habitual constiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

Hamilton's Elixir,

covery is of the first magnitude, as it affords immediate relief, checks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorders to which children are liable. The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative, Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of Nervous Disorders Violent cramps in the stomach and Consumptions Gout in the stomach Lowness of spirits Indigestion

Impurity of blood Hysterical affections Gout in the stomach and debility Relaxations, etc.

and chronic rheumatism, gout, rheumatic gout, palsy, lumbago, numbness, white

Warranted an infallible remedy at one application, may be used with perfect safety by pregnant women, or on infants a week old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and not accompanied with that tormenting smart which attends the application of other remedies.

Hahn's true & genuine German Corn Plaster.
An infallible remedy for corns, speedily removing them root and branch, without giving any pain.

The Genuine Persian Lotion.
So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellent minerals, the basis of other lotions, and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflammatory redness, scurfs, tetters, ringworms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c.

Hahn's genuine Eye Water, A sovereign remedy for all diseases of the eyes, whether the effect of nature weakness or of accident.

Tooth Ache Drops.
The only remedy yet discovered which gives immediate and lasting relief in the most severe instances.

Lee's Infallible Ague and Fever Drops

intermittent fevers.

formed by the above medicines; the num-

Proposals

FOR Publishing by Subscription, and now ready for the press, a series of historical volumes, which when finished will assume the title of Universal History Americanised;

Or, an historical view of Europe, Asia, Africa and America, from the earliest records to the nineteenth century—with a particular reference to the state of society, literature, religion, and form of government in the United States of America.

BY DAVID HANSAY, M. D.

"Life is so short and time so valuable, that it were happy for us if all great works were reduced to their quintessence."
Sir William Jones.

PROSPECTUS.

ASIA.
The Asiatic part of this work contains a general view of the antediluvians—of the general deluge—the re-settlement of the Globe after that great event—of the primitive postdiluvian nations, which were formed in Asia, the cradle of the world. Their various ramifications, revolutions, and of the general course of Empire.

AFRICA.

The African part, contains a concise history of Egypt, Carthage, Numidia; Mauritania, Abyssinia, of the Piratical States, and the Mottentots, with a grouped view of its uncivilized settlements.

EUROPE.

The European part, contains the history of Greece and Rome, from their origin to their dissolution—of the various nations which were conquered by them—and of the nations by which the Romans themselves were finally conquered, and of the nations which were formed from the fragments of the Roman Empire, and the various revolutions of the latter, together with a view of the nations which never were subjected to the Romans.

AMERICA.

The American part, contains a general history of the Western continent, under the heads of Free, European, and Aboriginal or unconquered America. The first contains a history of the United States, from their first settlement at English Colonies, till the present time.
The second, of all parts dependant on Europe.—And the third, of all that are titled owned by the Aborigines.

It is expected that the whole will be comprised in 10 or 12 octavo volumes, each to be printed in Philadelphia, on good paper and fair types, for $3 1-5 per volume, in sheep binding, or $4 1-3 Call Gilt, to be paid for on delivery.

AUTHORITIES.

This work has been in contemplation upwards of 40 years. The project of it was conceived in 1786, on reading the Universal History, then recently edited in 60 volumes, by a society of gentlemen in England. The original idea of extracting the quintessence of that voluminous work, which contained the complete system of history the world had then seen; has ever since been enlarging and improving by an attentive perusal of the histories written by Robertson, Hume, Gibbon, and other modern authors—of the Asiatic researches—of the works of Sir William Jones, and other learned Orientalists—the publications of intelligent travellers, who, in the course of the last half century have explored almost every region of the Globe. These collectively have thrown a blaze of light on countries comparatively unknown, and on portions both of ancient and modern history which were confused and obscure at the period when the writers of the Universal History published their work. The arrangement of materials collected from these sources commenced in the year 1780, when, in consequence of the surrender of Charleston to Sir Henry Clinton, the author was suddenly released from a sea of business and sent as a prisoner of war to the British Garrison then in St. Augustine, and there confined for eleven months, without any peculiar employment. Steady progress has been made for the last ten years in correcting and transcribing the work for publication.

UNITED STATES.

The History of the United States is given at full length—that of foreign countries is more or less expended or contracted in proportion to the intrinsic importance of each—its tendency to illustrate portions of Holy Writ—the Greek and Latin Classics—and also in proportion to its connexion with the U. States, or as furnishing useful practical information to its citizens, or as the paternal soil of their ancestors.

The above sketch of the nature and objects of this immense work, which has occupied the attention of the Author for upwards of 40 years, was found among his papers, and is now given to the public in his own words. Since that period, a few chapters have been added by the Reverend Samuel Stanhope Smith, which brings it down to the close of the last war.

The publication commences with a third impression of the History of the U.
States, in three volumes, which is all that has ever appeared. The whole will not be delivered under 15 or 20 months. It is proper to state, that the gentlemen who have the direction of it are neither booksellers nor printers, and receive no pecuniary consideration for their trouble —but are willing to make the necessary advances to carry it into execution provided the sale is warranted by public patronage. The profits arising are to be appropriated for the support and education of his children, four of each sex; to them its success is a matter of deep importance.

FASHION'S FOOLS.

The world still judges by the main,
For habit holds the yellow glass—
And through that jaundic'd medium seen, Shall Wisdom's self for Folly pass.
'Tis not because yon vapid spark Strays carelessly from reason's rules, That he hates reason—has no heart—
'Tis that he's one of Fashion's Fools.

The Toper o'er the bowl, whose joke He vents against his dearest friends, Next morn would fain the bowl were broke,
And he'd been dumb to make amends;
For honor well his heart can touch—He well knows golden friendship's rules—
His fault is that he drinks too much, Because he's one of Fashion's Fools.

The 'Bouncer' swears that brown is blue,
And moulds at will dame Nature's law,
And talks of joys he never knew,
And fancies charms he never saw.
'Tis not that he would fain renounce Fair truth and all her sacred rules;
But that it is genteel to 'bounce,'
And thus he's one of Fashion's Fools.

If Merit pine away forgot—If Rakes at sacred honor sneer—If Wedlock prove no guardian knot, And lovers dread to be sincere;—
'Tis not that men so much delight To deviate from honor's rules;
But that 'tis vulgar to be right—And thus they are all Fashion's Fools.

Say what conclusion's to be drawn;
Are we to fancy, or to feel?
To live awake, or in a yawn?
To be consistent, or genteel?
Soon the selection may be made—Let's square our lives by reason's rules;
So far be Fashion's modes ob-y'd, But let us be Fashion's Fools.

Rural Economy.

A respectable farmer has communicated to us a successful method of preventing his corn from being pulled up by birds and other enemies of the young plant. It is simply to give the seed a coat of tar before planting; and if afterwards rolled in plaster, so much the better. Neither bird, squirrel, nor insect, will then eat it.
Thin your tar by a moderate heat, and turn it on the seed; only take care not to have it so warm as to destroy the ger-minating principle. [Bost. Intell.]

YOUNG TURKEYS.
It is well known that young turkeys are very tender animals, and that exposure to cold and wet is almost certain death to them. An experienced friend assures us, that a certain way to avoid this is to take from the nest all the first eggs; the consequence will be, that the young brood comes forward later in the season, when the weather is milder and better suited to their tender constitutions, and thus nearly all of them may grow up to maturity. The person who communi-cates this hint, has for several successive seasons put it in practice, and always found it completely successful. [Vestport Mercury.]

OF PEACH TREES.
The best method I have yet discovered (says Judge Cooper, of New-Jersey) to prevent injury to peach trees from the worms, is to examine the trees carefully in the spring and take out the worms; repeat the operation about the 1st July, and hill up the earth round the trees 8 or 10 inches; in October, remove the earth, examine as before, then renew the hill, which leave till the spring examination.
By continuing this process annually, I am confident that not more than one of my peach trees has been killed by the worms, for twenty that have died in consequence of irregular winters. [Philad. paper.]

NAVY PENSION FUND.

Some shameful obliquities, if not frauds, have been discovered in the manner of conducting this important concern; and the public will be indebted to Mr. Talmadge for that discovery, and for the remedy which it is hoped congress will be able to apply to the grievance.

The chief source of supply for this fund, as established by law, was the prize money arising from vessels captured and condemned; half of which was to go to the captors, and the other half to constitute this fund. The proceeds of prizes, therefore, was from time to time paid into the district courts, the officers of which contrived to keep the captors quiet, by paying them their half, while that half which ought to have been paid into the charitable fund was retained, or squandered, or embezzled, and, there is reason to fear, consumed by successive frauds.

Mr. Tallmadge came to the knowledge of this transaction in this way: Having made an attempt this season to procure a pension for the widow and children of captain Lawrence, and finding that the state of the navy fund prevented the success of his application, he felt it his duty to inquire more particularly into the circumstances at the navy office, particularly as the secretary of the navy was directed by law to make an annual report of the state of that fund; which indeed had been done, but in a way that afforded little or no information. Aided by Mr. Homans, the principal clerk in that office, whose liberal exertions on the occasion Mr. Tallmadge complimented in the house, Mr. T. searched into the state of the fund, and found that it was shamefully abused, and that the clerks of the district courts had neglected to make the returns required by law. He found that in the year 1816 a law passed enjoining the district judges and district attorneys to enforce the payment; notwithstanding which very few returns had been made.
Mr. Tallmadge exemplified his statements by several cases of actual fraud—particularly in the case of the Spaniards, in which the captors received $0,000 dollars, but the clerk of the navy fund received no intimation whatever of the prize for a long time, and even then was able to obtain, and that with much difficulty and delay, only $2,000 dollars, the balance being detained under the name of a neutral claim. Mr. Tallmadge therefore brought it before congress, and moved a resolution, which was agreed to, calling on the secretary of the navy to make an ample report on the state of the fund, and all the circumstances attending its management and its abuses.

On motion of Mr. Spencer, a committee was yesterday appointed to inquire into the official conduct of Judge Van Ness, of the southern district of N.York.

Mr. Forsyth moved to insert the name of Judge Tallmadge also—which, it being intimated that that Judge wished to be included in the inquiry, was assented to.

The house refused to go into the consideration of the amendments of the senate to the slave bill, by a majority of 10 —73 to 63.

The Navigation bill from the senate was brought under the consideration of a committee of the whole, Mr. Bassett in the chair. Mr. Holmes spoke against the bill, soon after which the committee rose, and the house adjourned.

The parliament of Lower Canada, on the 17th of March, rejected (by a vote of 20 to 16) a proposition to consider the expediency of granting a compensation to the members to defray their expenses in attending the sessions of parliament.

The Nashville Clarion says that the sale of lands for the last two weeks ac-mounted to about $3,000,000; that very little that was sold went for less than $30 an acre. Eleven townships and ten fractions of townships were offered for sale. On the 1st March another sale was to take place.

From the Western Federalist
The state of New Jersey contained in 1810, upwards of 245,000 persons. Estimating 5 persons as the average in a family, there would then be more than 49,000 families—Supposing that each family consumes in a day Spirituous Liquors to the value of 10 cents, the daily amount is 490,000 dollars—and the yearly expenditure one million four hundred and sixty thousand dollars. It is questioned if all the grain and flour exported from the state amounts to this sum.

There are many mechanics who find it a hard matter to maintain a family and pay a house rent of 40 dollars. How many of these men are there who drink a shilling's worth of rum every day, a mounting in the year to 45 dollars.

After all what is the value of the liquor compared to the loss of time and the depravity of morals which always attends the immoderate use of it.

hio is at least 60 feet above low water some parts of Cincinnati—we are high

RIGHTLY INTERESTING.
The editor is indebted to the friendly attention of a respectable gentleman of this city for the following interesting extracts, which are from a source on which full reliance may be placed:

La Guayra, Feb. 20.

I write a few lines under the most awful feelings and apprehensions. Morillo is destroyed, or proved coward or traitor.
The province is lost! The Patriots fast advancing on Caracas, and no man to defend it. The greatest scene of distress and confusion imaginable prevails—all order lost, and thousands of people crowding on the shore and wharf to embark with whatever of most value they can take with them. Yesterday the scene of confusion commenced, and continues at this time with increased alarm—the wharf and shore covered with goods of all descriptions, and no possibility of getting them off. An embargo has been on for a week past, and no vessel permitted to sail. At this moment nothing can be done—every one is saving their own lives, and any thing else they can—There are several foreigners here; none of whom will remain, and they all have more or less property that will be lost, as it is the opinion of us all that no property found will be respected, and they do not consider even their lives safe. To add to the dismay, last night a severe shock of an earthquake was felt. The heart sickens with the scene of distress in every shape. A very high sea renders it dangerous for a small boat to pass, and the king's officers have all canoes engaged embarking stores and people.

4 o'clock P. M.—The distress increases—all at arm and confusion—thousands of men, women and children on the wharf and beach, endeavoring to get off—the sea immensely high, and many boats overset and lost in the surf, and women and children immersed in the waves.

Nothing positive is known where Mo-rillo is, or how near the Patriots are; but the cry is in all mouths, "they are coming!" Caracas is nearly deserted, as this place will soon be. No goods, except some of the most valuable, can be embarked, and they much injured. The earthquake last night has had a visible effect on the sea—it is very high. I trust time will be allowed to get off most of the miserable inhabitants, by whom the shore is lined—say with thousands.

Two Americans, one Englishman and myself, (who all have property here, and find it impossible to embark it) have concluded on remaining and waiting the issue. The greatest danger is apprehended from the blacks, who, so soon as the town will have been deserted, it is feared, will commence a general and indiscriminate robbery and plunder, and perhaps worse.

We shall occupy one house, and raise the American flag as some protection—I have but little hope of saving my property.

5 o'clock P. M.—The embarkation continues with increased terror and confusion—200 to 300 dollars are offered to a boat for one trip with passengers, and the government have just stove and thrown into the sea a quantity of gunpowder that they were unable to embark.
At present there are four of the fleet in the harbor, and a large number of merchant vessels, happily for the people, who are crowding their decks.

Half past 6 o'clock P. M.—Glorious news for the Spaniards. An express has just arrived, by which we have news of a terrible action being fought, in which Mo-rillo was victorious. The news has been converted the scene of dismay to joy, and a salute is now firing—all are overjoyed—particulars not yet known—to-morrow we will have them, and I will advise—Suffice it to say, it is such as to completely restore tranquility.

February 26.

Referring to my several letters heretofore, I have to advise that the embargo probably will be raised to-morrow, (which has been on 16 days.) This accounts for all my letters coming by one opportunity.

The sudden and great alarm we have been under has, in some measure, subsided, and enables me to advise so far as that we are permitted to know the result of the late actions.

General Morillo, with the principal part of his army, was posted in Calabosa, about 45 leagues from Caracas.

The Patriot chiefs, Bolivar and Piaz, formed a junction near St. Fernando, beyond Calabosa, and marched to attack Morillo; who abandoned Calabosa, with a view of falling back on and protecting Caracas. In his retreat he was attacked by the Patriots, and in two days and nights seven different actions ensued—Morillo always on the defensive, and falling back. In the last engagement the Spaniards claim a decisive victory, having destroyed the greater part of their opponents; but no details are yet made known—the loss on both sides no doubt severe. Since the action Morillo has occupied Villa de Cura, this side of Calabbosa; and the Patriots are said to have occupied the latter. After which no accounts were had from the contending armies for four days, and until the courier announced as above stated the decided victory obtained by the Royalists.

SHIPWRECK.

The following relation was given to the Keeper of the Steam Boat Hotel Reading Room Books, by a gentleman who arrived in this town on Monday, from Currituck.
In or about the 20th ult. a schr. of between 40 and 60 tons burthen, drifted ashore about 10 miles to the southward of Currituck Inlet, when she was immediately boarded and scuttled by the bon-kers, a people who have their habitation on the beach, and who live by fishing and oystering, and upon the spoils of the unfortunate mariner. Her name could not be ascertained, as these people, it was supposed, had torn it off the stern; part of a bill of lading, however, had been picked up on the beach, purporting that a schr (name obliterated) had cleared at Philadelphia for Baltimore, and that the captain's name was Lord, or something like it. It was not known what her cargo consisted of, but several wheelbarrows had floated ashore, and a trunk had also been found on the beach, broken open and its contents taken out. It was supposed that this schr had been capsized in the gale of the 17th ult. and every person on board lost.

The above informant further states, on Saturday evening last, he fell in with a Captain Miller, of the schooner Nancy Cotton, (as well as he can recollect the name) and for Edenton, from Wilmington, N. C. Capt. M. informed that two days before, on his coming in from sea over Ocracock Bar, he passed a schooner which she had fallen in with at sea, laden with salt and molasses, and not a soul on board. Capt. M. did not learn her name, where from, or where bound. [Ibid.]

From the Fed. Republican of April 9.

There are many different accounts of the late enormity which is stated to have been perpetrated at Algiers, all at which however agree that it was an almost unexampled outrage on the rights of independent nations. That foreign powers should send consuls to the residence of such barbarians, is an humiliating thing.
Against robbers and pirates the sword should always be drawn and the scabbard thrown away. Why are traitors made with men who claim to themselves credit for the violation of all treaties—who by their articles of religion are instructed to believe that all engagements made with Christian nations, it is presumptuous to break! What has been the consequence of Lord Exmouth's victory?

A treaty which he embraces the expedient opportunity to violate. The project of Sir Sidney Smith for all Christian nations to unite in preserving a small and establishment in the Mediterranean, completely remedies the mischief. Algiers may be bombarded and the natives de-riven from their habitations to the mountains; but they would return and build another city upon the ruins. To leave garisons in those places when conquered, would only expose them to all the horrors of pestilence, if we suppose them capable of defending against the assaults of the barbarians.
The practical powers of Barbary are evidently increasing in naval skill, strength and discipline, and they may now be forming the rudiments of a power which in some distant day all christian dom would tremble. If the power of Barbary held a fleet equal to the English, what is it fair to presume would be the extent of their ravages! How many more thousands would mourn their children, how many sons their fathers in captivity! If such things are done in the great tree, what will be done in the dry? The longer Christian nations tolerate such outrages, the more inveterate will this malady increase. The narrow, selfish and sordid policy of paying tribute to such pirates only increases their presumption and aggravates their insolence. The lion is now paying tribute to a mouse for the liberty allowed him of going in and returning from his den unmolested.

We present to our readers the following, which we believe to be the latest account of the recent outrage that was perpetrated in Algiers: it is not indeed attended with such shocking circumstances of aggravation as the first report, but it is enough—it is enough to authorize the colossal power of confederated civilization to stride over the Mediterranean sens and crush with one stamp of the foot that nest of ants, from which it has suffered so much annoyance.

Paris, February 5.

The captain of the Sardinian polacca, la Belle Maie, which arrived at the Lazaretto of Port Mahon, on the 6th Dec. last, having left Algiers on the 2d of the same month, reports as well as the fugitive passengers on board, that the new dey, Ali Hudja, having established his power by the aid of a considerable body of Moors, no longer set any bounds to his fury or his tyrannical conduct; that all the European powers without distinction, had been outraged; that all the consuls had been menaced and terrified by a numerous horde of negroes, of whom the dey's guard and court are composed, and who had forced themselves into the houses of the consuls, the security of which had ceased to be inviolable. The captain reports that Ali Hudja had caused to be destroyed the ancient palace of his predecessors; that he had established himself in a fort called le Chateau l'Empereur; and that he had not hesi-tated to seize the treasure which was kept there, and which had been hitherto religiously preserved; and that he had thus obtained immense means to support for a long time his horrible satellites, and to increase their numbers.

The dey had caused to be seized two young women of a Jewish family, whose father was employed in the English con-sulate, and two days afterwards also the eldest daughter of the Sieur Pominibis, master of the French hotel. The unfortunate girl last mentioned was compelled to espouse the dey, a d she is now sovereign, but expecting the fate of the daughter of the dey of Teyterus, who was seized in the same manner by the late dey Hadj Ali, and who was found after his death in prison, and emaciated by hunger.

The greater part of the consuls assembled, to make, in unison, complaints and remonstrances, but were informed before they reached the palace, that orders had been issued by Ali Hudja to his negroes to fire upon any of the consuls who should venture to make any complaint or remonstrance.

strengthening the stomach; increasing the appetite, and by the frequent use of them, they are a certain preventive against those complaints so common in the spring and fall seasons, such as intermittent fevers, and agues; long auare also of infinite service to those in the dinner and are particularly recommended for the use of Taverns and Public houses,

Land for Sale.
THE subscriber offers for sale, about 2000 acres of land in Fairfax county, not more than from seven to nine miles from Alexandria. The property is well watered, has a sufficiency of wood, and (judging from the condition of small and well cultivated farms that adjoin it) it is highly susceptible of improvement. It is at present divided into tenements, of from one to two hundred acres, each provided with a dwelling house, out houses, a garden and orchard; and might, of course, be laid off into four or five very compact farms. The principal object of the subscriber, being the introduction of a good system of husbandry into its neighborhood, will sell on very moderate terms, give a long credit on the whole amount of the purchase money, and require no other interest, than what the present rent of the land pays, being about 8 per cent. on its estimated value.

French Creek Boarding School.
The following is published for the information of Parents:
HAVING long believed that a School on a plan different from most others in many respects, would be beneficial to society, and apprehending that with all its cares and the responsibility inseparable from such a concern, I could more cheerfully devote my time to the education of children than to any other business, I have concluded to establish a BOARDING SCHOOL for GIRLS. With this view I have purchased the FARMON CREEK FARM, four miles east of the yellow springs, on the Norristown and Philadelphia road, situated in Pike-land, and Vincent townships, Chester county, twenty-seven miles from Philadelphia, combining many conveniences for the support of such an institution; and having let the farm, etc. in a way calculated to supply the family with provisions, I propose to devote my attention, with the aid of suitable assistants, to the education of the children who may be placed under my care.
In selecting the pupils, it is not proposed to be governed entirely by their ages, nor to require that they shall all be members of the religious society of Friends; but as the school rules will be very few in number and very simple, it is my wish that none may be sent contrary to their own inclination, nor any one who would not be likely to be good examples to the other scholars, and treat them with kindness and affection.
The price for board and tuition will be two hundred Dollars per annum, one quarter always to be paid in advance—no restrictions respecting the kind of clothing are intended, nor respecting the frequency of the changes that parents may require; the washing will be charged at the ordinary price per dozen—children may be admitted for one quarter only, and such as are entered for a longer period, may nevertheless be removed at the expiration of any quarter. The communication with Philadelphia will be frequent and easy by stage, and a house of entertainment kept by the farmer for the accommodation of persons having business at the school.
Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, English Grammar, Geography and the use of Maps and Globes, will be taught, together with such other branches as the progress of the children and experience may render expedient. The school to open the first of the 5th month next. For further information apply to Edward Stabler, Alexandria, or to EMMOR KIMBER.

Re-sale of Valuable Lands, FOR READY MONEY.
THE terms of a former sale not having been complied with, in pursuance of a decree of the United States circuit court of the District of Columbia for the county of Alexandria, directing a re-sale of the tract of land called the Glebe Lands, in case the terms of the former sale should not be complied with, we, the subscribers, shall, as commissioners under the decree of the circuit court of the District of Columbia, for the county of Alexandria, expose to sale for ready money at public auction, on Saturday the 18th day of April next, on the premises, that desirable Tract of Land, in the county of Alexandria, commonly called the Glebe Lands, situate about 2 miles from Georgetown ferry and 7 1/2 from Alexandria, containing 566 acres, by survey—one half of which is well timbered with oak, hickory and chestnut. It is handsomely situated, good water, and a fine young orchard of the best selected apples and cherries. The land will be sold agreeably to survey, more or less. Land for Sale.
THE subscriber offers for sale, about 2000 acres of land in Fairfax county, not more than from seven to nine miles from Alexandria. The property is well watered, has a sufficiency of wood, and (judging from the condition of small and well cultivated farms that adjoin it) it is highly susceptible of improvement. It is at present divided into tenements, of from one to two hundred acres, each provided with a dwelling house, out houses, a garden and orchard; and might, of course, be laid off into four or five very compact farms. The principal object of the subscriber, being the introduction of a good system of husbandry into its neighborhood, will sell on very moderate terms, give a long credit on the whole amount of the purchase money, and require no other interest, than what the present rent of the land pays, being about 8 per cent. on its estimated value.

HAVING long believed that a School on a plan different from most others in many respects, would be beneficial to society, and apprehending that with all its cares and the responsibility inseparable from such a concern, I could more cheerfully devote my time to the education of children than to any other business, I have concluded to establish a BOARDING SCHOOL for GIRLS. With this view I have purchased the FARMON CREEK FARM, four miles east of the yellow springs, on the Norristown and Philadelphia road, situated in Pike-land, and Vincent townships, Chester county, twenty-seven miles from Philadelphia, combining many conveniences for the support of such an institution; and having let the farm, etc. in a way calculated to supply the family with provisions, I propose to devote my attention, with the aid of suitable assistants, to the education of the children who may be placed under my care.
In selecting the pupils, it is not proposed to be governed entirely by their ages, nor to require that they shall all be members of the religious society of Friends; but as the school rules will be very few in number and very simple, it is my wish that none may be sent contrary to their own inclination, nor any one who would not be likely to be good examples to the other scholars, and treat them with kindness and affection.
The price for board and tuition will be two hundred Dollars per annum, one quarter always to be paid in advance—no restrictions respecting the kind of clothing are intended, nor respecting the frequency of the changes that parents may require; the washing will be charged at the ordinary price per dozen—children may be admitted for one quarter only, and such as are entered for a longer period, may nevertheless be removed at the expiration of any quarter. The communication with Philadelphia will be frequent and easy by stage, and a house of entertainment kept by the farmer for the accommodation of persons having business at the school.
Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, English Grammar, Geography and the use of Maps and Globes, will be taught, together with such other branches as the progress of the children and experience may render expedient. The school to open the first of the 5th month next. For further information apply to Edward Stabler, Alexandria, or to EMMOR KIMBER.
